

THE NATIONAL PANCREAS FOUNDATION ACADEMIC CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

Adult Pancreatitis Application

To be considered an Academic Center of Excellence, please complete and submit the Clinical Center of Excellence application together.

Clinical Criteria (Please check box if all criteria are met and provide additional info below)

Ability to perform pancreatic function testing

- Secretin MRCP.
- Direct pancreatic function.

Availability of TPIAT

- Available on site.
- Established referral process.

Availability of comprehensive genetic testing for appropriate patients. For any criteria not met, please provide additional comments. For answers that are more than 4-5 lines, please include it in a Word document.

Training and Education (Please check box if all criteria are met and provide additional info below)

- ACGME- approved Gastroenterology Fellowship.
- 4th year advanced Endoscopy Fellowship.
- ACGME-approved General Surgery Residency.
- Surgical Oncology or Pancreaticobiliary Surgery Fellowship.
- ACGME approved GI Pathology fellowship or access to a pathologist with expertise in gastrointestinal and/or pancreatic disorders.
- Abdominal Imaging Fellowship.
- Medical Pancreatology Fellowship (desirable).

For any criteria not met, please provide additional comments. For answers that are more than 4-5 lines, please include it in a Word document.

Research and Clinical Trials (Please check box if all criteria are met and provide additional info below)

- IRB-approved studies related to pancreatitis.
- Participation in multi-institution clinical studies.
- IRB-approved single center biorepository, or participation in multi-site biorepository.
- Ongoing laboratory and/or clinical research productivity in the field of pancreatitis, as documented by consistent and sustained peer-reviewed publications and/or research funding.
- Evidence of trainees participating in research.

Please provide URL for clinical trials (to be add to the NPF website) and additional comments if any criteria is not met. For answers that are more than 4-5 lines, please include it in a Word document.

Reputation (Please check box if this criteria is met)

- Evidence of regional or national reputation for management of pancreatitis. This can include development and participation in educational meetings, participation in guideline or consensus development, or authorship on white papers or guidelines.

Please provide publications that demonstrate this reputation, and/or a list of pancreatic-focused meetings that the institution sponsors or participates in. For answers that are more than 4-5 lines, please include it in a Word document.

END OF APPLICATION